

Clearwater Beach Hair Salon Stylist Lori Fudens from Sharmaines Salon and Day Spa Brings Tampa Bay the Highest Level of Hair Design Expertise as a Redken Certified Design Stylist

Clearwater Beach hair salon stylist, Lori Fudens, recently became one of the few Redken-trained individuals experienced in latest hair cutting and styling trends

CLEARWATER, Fla. – Clearwater Beach hair salon stylist Lori Fudens recently excelled into an elite group of Redken Certified Design Stylists, who guarantee top notch service and exceptional technical skills.

Clearwater Beach hair salon stylist Lori Fudens can provide the absolute latest trends in cutting, updos, blowouts, styling for special occasions, and more, ensuring that clients will leave the salon with a look they will love.

Clearwater Beach hair salon stylist has undergone the official Redken Certification process, which is rigorous and the standards are high. Therefore, there's a certain level of acclaim associated with becoming part of this leading group whose members are constantly recognized for their cutting and finishing expertise.

“Now that Clearwater Beach hair salon stylist Lori Fudens, co-owner of Sharmaine’s, has received official Redken Design Certification, those in Clearwater and Tampa Bay have access to a superior stylist with the latest information on hair products, trends, and techniques,” says Christine Schuster, Senior Vice President of Education for Redken. “When clients book a cut or styling appointment with a Redken Certified Design Stylist, they can rest assured they will receive the highest quality results and service.”

Those looking for fresh, high quality hair services at a Clearwater Beach hair salon can call Lori at Sharmaine’s at 727-447-2025 to make an appointment.